Bylaws of the City, County and Local Government Law Section

Article I NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1. Name. The name shall be "City, County and Local Government Law Section, The Florida Bar."

Section 2. Purpose. The purposes of this section are:

(a) To provide an organization within The Florida Bar open to all members in good standing thereof having an interest in local government law.

(b) To serve the public generally and The Florida Bar, as a forum for research and discussion, in the development of local government law.

Article II MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility. Any member in good standing of The Florida Bar interested in the purposes of this section is eligible for membership upon application and payment of this section's annual dues. Any member who ceases to be a member of The Florida Bar in good standing shall no longer be a member of this section.

Section 2. Administrative Year. The administrative year of the section shall run concurrently with the administrative year of The Florida Bar.

Section 3. Annual Dues. The annual dues shall be in an amount fixed by the executive council and approved by the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar. There shall be no proration of annual dues. Upon becoming a member, dues shall be payable thereafter in advance of each membership year. Any member whose dues are in arrears for a period of three months shall thereupon cease to be a member of the section.

Section 4. Affiliate Membership.

(a) Eligibility. The executive council may enroll, upon request and upon payment of the prescribed dues as affiliate members of the section, other persons who have shown interest in and contribution to the section's activities as defined herein below (hereinafter "affiliates"). The number of affiliates shall not exceed 1/3 of the section membership.

(b) Definitions. "Affiliate" or "affiliate member" means any person who practices a profession dealing with local government. Such persons are not limited to members of The Florida Bar. Any certified legal assistant in the State of Florida or any member in good standing of Florida Legal Assistants, Inc. or any law student registered to take the Florida Bar exam, interested in the purposes of this section, is eligible for affiliate membership.

(c) Rights & Privileges. Affiliate members shall not vote and shall not hold any section office.

(d) Annual Dues. The annual dues shall be in an amount fixed by the executive council and approved by the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar. There shall be no proration of annual dues. Upon becoming an affiliate member, dues shall be payable thereafter in advance of each affiliate membership year. Any affiliate member whose dues are in arrears for a period of 3 months shall thereupon cease to be an affiliate member of the section.

(2) Expenses. The City, County and Local Government Law Section shall reimburse The Florida Bar for expense incurred by The Florida Bar in administering the affiliate membership.

Article III OFFICERS

Section 1. Selection of Officers. The officers of this section shall be a chair, a chair-elect and a secretary-treasurer. The chair-elect shall become the chair in the manner provided by these bylaws. The chair shall appoint a committee of three members of the section which shall nominate two active members of the section for the offices of chair-elect and secretary-treasurer. The nomination shall be reported to the chair so it can be included in the annual meeting notices. Other nominations for the positions of chair-elect and secretary-treasurer may be made by any 15 members in good standing who shall file with the secretary-treasurer at least 15 days prior to the annual meeting a petition setting forth the name of any such nominee and the secretary-treasurer shall forthwith notify the other officers of the section, the nominee of the nominating committee, and the nominating committee. Nominations from the floor are not permitted.

Section 2. Duties of Officers.

(a) Chair. The chair shall preside at all meetings of the section and at all meetings of the executive council of the section. The chair shall appoint 4 at-large members of the executive council, and subject to the review of executive council, the membership of all committees and committee chairs, prepare all reports to be submitted to The Florida Bar or to the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar, and perform such other duties as provided by these by-laws and as customarily pertain to the office of the chair. The chair shall be an ex officio, non-voting member of each committee of the section.

(b) Chair-Elect. The chair-elect shall automatically become the chair at the end of the regular term of the chair, or in the event of the death or resignation of the chair, the chair-elect shall serve as the chair for the remainder of the term of office thus vacated, and then shall serve as chair for the subsequent term for which elected. In case of temporary disability or absence of the chair, the chair-elect shall serve as acting chair for the duration of the chair's disability or absence. The chair-elect shall be responsible for such duties as the chair may delegate and as provided in these by-laws. The chair-elect shall be an ex officio, non-voting member of each committee of the section.

(c) Secretary-Treasurer. The secretary-treasurer shall have the responsibility of accounting for all funds of this section, see to the approval of all disbursements and preparation of financial statements, shall keep the permanent files and records of the section, including minutes of meetings of the section and of the executive council, and shall keep various committee reports and report them to the executive council at the annual meeting, except such services as are performed by The Florida Bar. The secretary-treasurer shall be in charge of the membership program of the section and serve as chair of the committee on membership. The original minutes of any executive council meeting shall be filed with The Florida Bar.

Section 3. Term of Office.

(a) Chair. The term of office of the chair shall begin at the conclusion of the election at the annual meeting of the section and shall end at the conclusion of the election at the next annual meeting of the section, at such time, being automatically succeeded by the chair-elect.

(b) Chair-elect. The term of office of the chair-elect shall run concurrently with that of the chair, beginning at the conclusion of the election at the annual meeting of the section and ending at the conclusion of the next annual meeting of the section when becoming chair.

(c) Secretary-Treasurer. The term of office of the secretary-treasurer shall run concurrently with that of the chair of the section beginning at the conclusion of the election at the annual meeting of the section and ending at the conclusion of the elections at the next annual meeting.

Section 4. Vacancies. The chair shall fill a vacancy in the office of secretary-treasurer. In the event that the offices of both chair and chair-elect become vacant, the executive council shall fill the offices of chair and chair-elect from among its members for the unexpired term, and at the next annual meeting of the section, a chair and chair-elect shall be elected and shall take office in the manner provided in these bylaws.

Article IV EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section 1. Governing Body. The Executive Council is the governing body of the section. In order to promote interest in the section and insure the widest representation in the management of its affairs, the State of Florida is divided into regions conforming in number and location to the judicial appellate districts within the state. The executive council membership shall consist of 6 members at-large and 1 resident member from each of the state's judicial appellate districts. Residency shall be determined either by a member's official bar address or place of residency. Upon changes in the number and area of judicial appellate districts, the number and residence of the executive council members shall likewise be effective following the conclusion of the annual meeting of the section. Past section chairs shall serve ex officio as non-voting members of the executive council.

Section 2. Membership. The executive council shall be the governing body of the section and shall consist of the chair, chair-elect, secretary-treasurer, the immediate past section chair, one section member from each judicial appellate district, elected by the membership, and 6 section members at-large, 4 appointed by the chair from the section membership. Past section chairs shall serve ex officio as non-voting members of the executive council. The filling of the initial and all subsequent regular vacancies for the 6 at-large members shall be as follows: 4 appointed by the chair, 2 elected by the membership for 1-year terms. The persons currently sitting as members of the executive council from each of the judicial appellate districts shall continue to hold office until the expiration of their current terms; and provided further, that as such elected executive council members terms expire in the future, such vacancies (following regular expiration of terms) shall be filled in the following manner: the members of the executive council from each of the judicial appellate districts, whenever a regular vacancy other than those as described in Section 4 is created, shall be elected by the membership of the section in attendance at the annual meeting of the section.

A nominating committee appointed by the chair shall submit to the executive council:

1. Nominations for chair-elect and secretary-treasurer of the executive council for the upcoming year.
2. Nominations for the purpose of presenting to the annual section meeting the names of the nominees for the judicial appellate district member(s) vacancies on the executive council to be filled by a simple majority vote, subject, however, to approval of said nomination by the executive council prior to submission of said names to the section membership for their consideration. Nominations for such vacancies may also be made from the floor at the regular meeting of the section preceding the section's annual meeting.
3. The election of such officers and executive council members at the annual meeting of the section shall be by majority vote of those present pursuant to a balloting procedure to be determined by the executive council.

Section 3. Term of Office. The elected executive council members shall hold office for 3 years. The appointed executive council members shall hold office for 1 year. The person appointed or elected shall take office immediately following the conclusion of the election at the annual meeting of the section and ending at the conclusion of the elections at the next annual meeting.

Section 4. Vacancies. In the event a council member's position becomes vacant, other than through the regular expiration of their 3 or 1 year term, by reason of death, disability, removal or otherwise, the vacant position shall be filled by the chair of the section for the unexpired term by a qualified member of the section.

Section 5. Executive Committee. The chair, chair-elect and secretary treasurer shall comprise the executive committee of the executive council. The executive committee shall have the authority to take action on behalf of the executive council when action is required between meetings of the executive council. The executive committee shall notify the executive council at the next executive council meeting of all action taken during the interim period between meetings of the executive council. Unless modified or reversed by the executive council at such meeting, actions of the executive committee shall be final.

Article V COMMITTEES

Section 1. Committees. The chair of the section shall have the authority to appoint such committees as deemed necessary, which shall be immediately reported to the executive council of the section, and shall be effective until and unless disapproved by the executive council at its next meeting following such appointments.

Section 2. Reports. The chair of each committee shall submit a written report of that committee's activities during the preceding year to the secretary prior to the annual meeting of the section. The report or reports of all committees of this section shall not be published except pursuant to approval of the executive council.

Article VI MEETINGS

Section 1. The Section. The annual meeting of this section shall be held at the time of the Annual City, County and Local Government Law in Florida seminar each year. The notice to all members as to the time and place of the annual meeting shall be given at least 45 days in advance thereof. Notice may be provided either by mail or publication in the Florida Bar News. The members of the section present in person at any annual meeting shall constitute a quorum and a majority vote of those present shall be binding.

Section 2. Executive Council. The executive council shall hold an organizational meeting during the annual convention of The Florida Bar. The executive council shall hold at least two regular meetings between each annual meeting; provided, however, the business of the executive council may be conducted between meetings by correspondence to the extent authorized by the chair. The date and location of each regular meeting shall be fixed by the chair of the section and written notice of such date and location shall be given to each member of the executive council at least 14 days prior to the date thereof. Special meetings of the executive council may be held at such times and such places as the chair may call by written notice to each member of the executive council at least 14 days prior thereto. Those council members present at a meeting of the executive council shall constitute a quorum and a majority vote of those present shall be binding.

Section 3. Convention Program. The chair-elect shall be responsible for the section program for the annual convention of The Florida Bar. Any such program shall provide adequate time for the business meeting of the section and the chair shall prepare the agenda for such business meeting.

Article VII AMENDMENTS

The bylaws may be amended at any annual meeting of the section by a majority vote of the members of the section present and voting; provided, that no amendment shall become effective until approved by the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

Article VIII MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Action of The Florida Bar. No action of this section shall be represented or construed as the action of The Florida Bar until it has been approved by the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

Section 2. Financial Obligations. Before payment, any financial obligations must be approved in the manner specified by the executive council.

Section 3. Compensation and Expenses. No salary or other compensation shall be paid to any member of this section for performance of services to the section, but the chair may authorize the payment of reasonable expenses resulting from the performances of such services.

Section 4. Policies. No action of this section shall be contrary to the policies of The Florida Bar as established by its board of governors.
